Evan-Moor Daily 6 Trait Writing: A Deep Dive into Grade 3

Evan-Moor's Daily 6 Trait Writing for Grade 3 offers a comprehensive approach to teaching writing skills. This system utilizes the six traits of writing – ideas, organization, voice, word choice, sentence fluency, and conventions – to foster well-rounded writers. It's designed to be used daily, providing consistent practice and feedback. This article will investigate the program's features, benefits, and implementation strategies, offering educators a lucid understanding of how to employ it effectively in the classroom.

The Six Traits: A Foundation for Effective Writing

The heart of the Evan-Moor Daily 6 Trait Writing program lies in its focus on the six traits. These aren't merely grammar rules; they are interconnected aspects that contribute to the overall effectiveness of a piece of writing.

- Ideas: This trait evaluates the clarity, focus, and development of the writing's central concept. Grade 3 students learn to generate compelling ideas and back up them with relevant details. Examples in the program might include brainstorming sessions, graphic organizers, and story mapping.
- Organization: This concerns the structure and flow of the writing. Third graders learn how to arrange their ideas logically, using techniques like chronological order, cause and effect, or comparison/contrast. The program often uses visual aids like outlines and flowcharts to help students conceptualize their organizational structure.
- Voice: This refers to the writer's character shining through in their work. It's about the unique perspective and tone the author brings to the piece. The Evan-Moor program promotes students to find their voice through introspective writing prompts and peer feedback.
- Word Choice: This trait concentrates on the precision and effectiveness of the language used. Third graders learn to select words that convey meaning accurately and vividly. The program includes exercises on synonyms, antonyms, and descriptive language.
- Sentence Fluency: This pertains to the rhythm and flow of the sentences. Students learn to vary sentence structure, avoid choppy sentences, and create a smooth, engaging reading experience. The program utilizes sentence combining and sentence expansion activities to improve fluency.
- Conventions: This trait includes the mechanical aspects of writing, such as spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization. While important, it's viewed as a supportive element, not the primary focus. The program offers consistent practice in these areas, but always within the context of the other five traits.
